TEMPE.

Tempe has quieted down after the great celebration of Tuesday and the town has a mutilated appearance. Most of the people at the military ball were Phoenix people and when they left on the 11 o'clock train the dance broke up. All the ice cream obtainable in the valley was consumed during the day; the restaurants and hotels were cleaned out of all food and thousands of gallons of lemonade and sodawater were consumed. Even the saloons ran short after handing over the bars wagonloads of beer and other liquors. No accidents or disturbances took place to mar the success of the day. The train crews should receive especial commendation for the masterly manner in which they handled the thousands of people and for the long arduous hours they put in. All day and evening the lawn ice cream cafe of the M. E. church was thronged with hungry, thirsty people. The church at 10 o'clock cleaned up $110 and closed up for the want of more ice cream and ice.

J. W. Hamilton of Phoenix established himself with a boat-blacking stand in the center of town and there he labored and sweat from early morning till 10 o'clock at night without stopping for meals.

Mrs. M. G. Hood will leave on tonight's excursion to California.

Mrs. M. G. Hill and Mrs. Curt W. Miller were passengers on the 2 p. m. train for Phoenix yesterday.

Mrs. Guthrie was a visitor at Phoenix yesterday.

Mrs. James McNaughton and Miss Amina McNaughton will leave tonight for their new home at San Jose, Cal. They will carry with them the best wishes of our people by whom they will long be kindly remembered. Tempe does not believe often, but when the people do decide to celebrate they go into the matter with the proper spirit. This was exemplified Tuesday by the generous and elaborate way in which the Tempeans entertained her 5,000 visitors who had come from the various local points to join in the celebration of America's natal day.

The programme for the day was carried out with but few exceptions. The parade formed at the Hayden hotel and began to move at 11 o'clock as was announced. The mounted police headed the procession and were followed by the Pioneer band of Phoenix, then the committees, a few of the Blues and the Grays, three companies of the N. G. A. under the command of Major Mullen.

The Goddess of Liberty, Miss Minnie Laird, who was an inspiration of beauty, and the admiration of all brought up the rear.

The parade took its way up Mill avenue toward the picnic grounds, and was closely followed by the immense crowd, which lined the street on either side. At the grounds the finely barbecued meats were freely served to all. Nothing of good cheer was wanting and the inner man of all was seemingly thoroughly satisfied.

At 2 p. m. everyone gathered around the grand stand where the band was stationed to assist in the programme that had been arranged. Through some misunderstanding the several gentlemen who had agreed to speak were not present.

The declaration was read by Mr. Carl Hayden in a masterly manner, and an oration was delivered in Spanish by Senor Sanchez, after which the band pleased the crowd by their usually splendid music.

The day's entertainment was concluded by a splendid display of fireworks given from the top of the Tempe bluff. This feature presented a very pleasing spectacle and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The military ball given at the army by the members of company C. N. G. A. was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

MESA.

The people of Mesa were thoroughly awakened on Tuesday morning by the rousing sunrise salutes. All were made to feel that the greatest of American holidays had come around once more. As it had been agreed that Mesa would join with Tempe in celebrating, no special preparation or programme had been arranged, yet the day was quietly and pleasantly spent. Those who did not go to Tempe, spent the day enjoying family reunions, etc. The dance given at the Co-op hall by the M. I. in the evening was largely attended, about 300 people being present. All report a most happy time for both the day and evening.

Major W. A. Kimball and family spent Tuesday in Tempe. The citizens of Mesa were very much pleased with the service of the excursion trains on Tuesday to Tempe.

Barnett & Wingar are selling out their summer goods at cost. The special line of ready-made summer suits for children deserve special attention.

A. C. McQueen and family spent Tuesday in Tempe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Peterson entertained a number of friends Tuesday at their elegant home on Main street.

William Newell and family spent the day in Tempe on Tuesday.

Messrs. George Wilbur and Harry Lowery came up from Tempe on Monday.

Charles Mullen and family and a party of friends will leave on Saturday for the White mountains where they will spend the summer.

Phil Metz will leave in a few days for the coast to spend the summer.

Company B. N. G. A. of Mesa, took part in the regimental parade on Tuesday at Tempe. Captain T. E. Pomeroy was in command of the company.

H. A. Anderson of the firm of Anderson Bros. left on Wednesday for Providence, Ariz.

W. E. Pomeroy and mother and Mrs. Zula Roldan spent Tuesday in Tempe.

Quite a display of fireworks was given by a number of patriotic citizens on Main street on Tuesday night.

LeBaron Bros. have fitted up a very nice stand at their store where refreshments are served.

Dr. Lucas has moved his office from the Alhambra hotel to his residence one door south of the hotel.

Thomas Winsor of the geological survey gave the following data to Thomas Buchanan of Hiesert Wells: Distance from Turman & Horn's blacksmith shop, Mesa, to Desert Wells, 14.4 miles. Distance from Desert Wells to Florence, 256.6 miles. Distance from Mesa to Florence, 41 miles. These figures are absolutely reliable.

Warren L. Strrine and family left yesterday for Dine, Idaho, where they will spend the summer.

The hall over John Barnett's drug-store has been completed and is one of the most elegantly equipped lodge rooms in the territory. The hall was fitted up for the W. of W. lodge of Mesa. All of its members are very much pleased with the general arrangement and equipment, and will take possession next week. An elegant programme has been arranged for the occasion and a general good time is expected.

A BANKRUPT BISHOP.

Rt. Rev. Lemuel H. Wells, Free himself of Debts of $12,000.

The newspapers of Spokane, Wash., report that Lemuel H. Wells, Episcopal bishop for the missionary jurisdiction of Spokane, Wash., appeared before a referee in that city in bankruptcy proceedings on May 11, and has freed himself of debts amounting to more than $12,000. He and his wife, Henriette B., appeared in the proceedings jointly and swore that their assets consisted of two small pieces of Tacoma real estate valued at $650 and books and wearing apparel, which are exempt. Bishop Wells is one of the best known clergymen on the Pacific coast. Ten years ago he was rector of St. Luke's church in Tacoma, and Mrs. Wells was principal of the Annie Wright seminary, an Episcopal school for girls.

In boom days Mr. and Mrs. Wells bought and sold Tacoma real estate on a large scale, both jointly and severally. Part of their building operations were carried on with borrowed money, including one six-story business block, which was sold later to George Vanderbilt. When business depression came they were unable to meet interest payments. Some of their property was sold and mortgages were foreclosed on other parcels.

Bishop Wells is under the direction of the mission board of New York of the Protestant Episcopal church and receives a salary of $3,000 a year with traveling expenses. It was said yesterday that the mission board would bring the case to the notice of the House of Bishops, which meets in St. Louis next October.

GERGE ELIOT STUDIED THERE.

The Fifth Anniversary of Bedford College in London.

The first of this month Bedford college, London, celebrated its fifth anniversary. The college was founded by Mrs. R. D. in 1849. It was a great success from the very first, and in a short time after its foundation other women imitated Mrs. R. D. by establishing women's colleges. The present buildings were erected in 1874 at a cost of $80,000. It is noteworthy that Bedford college offered the first scholarships for women and in 1879, when the matriculation examination of the London university was thrown open to women, six Bedford girls passed with honors. Among famous students who have attended Bedford college was "George Eliot." Her favorite study was mathematics. Another old student was Mrs. Craik, the authoress of "John Halifax, Gentleman." Miss Philippa Fawcett, the "senior wrangler," also got her education in this place. One of the most interesting persons who will attend the forthcoming celebrations will be Miss Anna Swanwick, LL.D. She is well known to the students of foreign classics and the translator of Aeschylus, Goethe and Schiller. Miss Swanwick has been connected with Bedford from its foundation, and in spite of her 86 years of age, she now takes as much interest in its work as ever.—London Echo.

A GOOD HORSE.

A 1,500 mile carriage drive is not a common experience in these days, but that is the distance covered by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mason, who rode from Indianapolis to Westport, Mo., between May 6 and June 18. They made a good-you-please affair of it, greatly enjoying the journey, and the horse actually gained flesh on the road.—Kennebeck Journal.
